CERTIFICATE IN REFLECTIVE PRACTICE AND PASTORAL SUPERVISION

18 October 2017 – 21 June 2018

(a series of six 2-day training workshops)

Course fee: £836 Number of places: 18

Venue: Sherwood Psychotherapy Training Institute, Nottingham NG1

Who is the course for?

This course has been running for six years and is especially designed for:

- Ordained and Lay Ministers
- Spiritual Directors and Chaplains
- Pastoral Care Team Leaders
- Counsellors, Psychotherapists and Clinical Supervisors.

This course may be of interest to you if:

- You would like an in-depth understanding of pastoral supervision and effectively use it to support your ministry
- You would like to foster and develop skills in spiritual care within multi-disciplinary teams
- You would like to extend your existing line management capacity, by offering supervisory input and reflective practice to team members
- You would like to draw on both theological and psychological understandings of Christian mission and ministry in a variety of settings.
- You would like to offer non-threatening supervision and reflective practice to a range of pastoral practitioners.

How do I qualify?

This course is suitable for you if:

- You are currently engaged in pastoral and ministerial work in your context
- You have supervisory responsibilities within your setting
- You have at least 2 separate situations (group/individual) in which you offer pastoral supervision
- You have good listening skills
- You comply with your professional Code of Ethics.

What are the course aims?

The current emphasis upon Ministerial Development means that the church needs practitioners with supervisory skills to facilitate creative reflection on the priorities and tasks of ministry. Within a widening variety of settings, chaplains have an important role to play in fostering skills of reflective practice – particularly in relation to spiritual care – within multi-disciplinary teams. In addition, spiritual direction is increasingly seen as a life-giving ministry to the whole church and spiritual directors also need opportunities to reflect on their practice and receive supervision for their work.

The Certificate in Reflective Practice and Pastoral Supervision has been developed to address this cluster of training needs. It is a substantial course, which draws on both theological and psychological understandings of the mission and ministry of lay and ordained Christians in a variety of settings.

How will I learn?

The course operates as an ecumenical learning community where your working experience is valued as the raw material for learning. This is built upon through a variety of activities, including facilitator and student-led seminars, small group experiential tasks and reflective practice demonstrations.

Your development as a supervisor will be monitored through essay writing, seminar presentation, peer supervision activities and audio-taped sessions and assessed by yourself, your peers and the group facilitators. Assignments are designed to contribute to your practice and will form part of a portfolio of evidence of professional competence in pastoral supervision.

What will I gain on completion?

On successful completion:

- You will be able to give and receive pastoral supervision, working as a reflective practitioner with individuals and within groups.
- You will have met the training criteria for accreditation by the Association for Pastoral Supervision and Education (www.pastoralsupervision.org.uk).
- The award of 'Certificate in Reflective Practice & Pastoral Supervision' is made by the Institute of Pastoral Counselling (www.pastoral-counselling.co.uk).

The course is recognised by APSE, by the Institute for Pastoral Supervision and Reflective Practice (www.ipsrp.org.uk) and endorsed by the Diocese of Southwell & Nottingham (southwell.anglican.org).
